

No communication

they should have provided the information earlier

He felt communication was what was missing

"I mean, I had a Canadian SIM card, so I had data and this was not the issue. The issue is that I didn't receive anything from them"

Delay Reasons

When it started to get worrying because it started to be delayed and delayed and then they told us the truth, but it took some time

Not even after 2 hours there was an emergency landing

They can be honest to us, like, yeah, if the flight is going to be delayed, just straight away say that on our face"

Passenger mentioned the airline they chose is almost always late

Unclear communication passenger felt like the airline company did not respond well and just said its due to weather.

☐ Excellent
☒ Fair
☐ general response

"we were expecting a representative who can talk to us"

"that's what they kept doing that and after, like, everyone was frustrated so they had to call the manager and the upper higher authorities"

Email Communication

The participant received email updates on the flight's status

Future Travels

is not now reluctant to take a plane in that sense, but maybe I will sink it twice if it is going to be with this company specifically"

Received compensation

They were given hotel accomodation

The airline gave the participant a voucher of 400 CAD as a compensation.

were not really aware that the participant could apply for compensation

Air Travel Passenger Rights

Passenger did not feel informed about it we're going to need that anytime soon, so we're just like, okay, yeah, I accept everything"

People don't really take their time and go into reading the air passenger right documentation

I like strongly recommend everyone to yeah, just read the document before just boarding any flight"
